The tenant was able to secure a piece of office space that fits their creative needs, and the landlord entered into a long term transaction helping to increase occupancy in the asset. The completed space will be some of the most creative and spectacular space in the property”. The Cast Iron Building, located at 718-20 Arch Street in center City Philadelphia has long been a mainstay among creative office space properties. The property still has office space available ranging from 1,500 sf to 10,000 sf.
